MUTUALLY AGREED SERVICE TERMS AND CONDITIONS

This Mutually Agreed Service Terms and Conditions ("Agreement") is to define the professional parameters and shared objectives that govern the provision of services. This Agreement is executed between Celebal Technologies Private Limited ("Company") and Mr. / Ms. _____ ("Intern / Trainee / Employee / You") on _____ ("Execution Date") and shall be effective from date of joining of the Employee ("Effective Date").

After careful consideration and comprehension of the terms and conditions outlined below, You hereby signify Your agreement by providing Your signature:

1. The Employee agrees to provide its services to the Company for a prescribed period of 24 months, effective from the Effective Date ("Service Commitment Period"). It is hereby acknowledged that during the Service Commitment Period the Employee will refrain from submitting a resignation from its position within the Company. If, however, the Employee chooses to conclude their affiliation with the Company, they may do so upon fulfilling the entire Service Commitment Period, followed by a notice period of at least three (3) months. It's important to note that the commencement of the notice period will exclusively begin upon the satisfactory completion of the Service Commitment Period.
2. The Employee agrees to indemnify the Company by paying liquidated damages, which may vary based on associated costs and circumstances, in case of voluntary resignation or departure from the Company before completing the Service Commitment Period ("Damages"). Furthermore, the Employee is liable to pay Rs. 1,50,000/- (Rupees One Lakh Fifty Thousand only) and 50% (fifty percent) of the stipend received during the Internship and Trainee period to cover training, mentoring, and related expenses, as per the terms outlined in the appointment/employment letter and service conditions. The Employee acknowledges that these Damages and training costs constitute a debt to the Company. This amount is due and payable on or before the Employee's final working day with the Company.
3. The Employee is obligated to observe a notice period of 3 (three) months, regardless of the Service Commitment Period. To illustrate, let's consider an example: If the Employee commences employment on 1st January 2025 with a Service Commitment Period of 12 months, the Employee may choose to resign from their current position on or after 1st January 2026. Subsequently, the Employee is required to serve a 3-month notice period and will be relieved of their position on or after the completion of the 3-month notice period, which would be on or after 1st April 2026. It is explicitly stated that the Notice Period is an independent service requirement of the Company and shall not be altered, combined, or modified based on the Service Commitment Period. Every Employee of the Company, irrespective of whether they are serving the Service Commitment Period, is obligated to fulfil the mandatory 3-month notice period. Additionally, if an employee is currently undergoing the Service Commitment Period, they are still obliged to complete the notice period and/or make an equivalent payment as mutually discussed and agreed upon between the Company's management and the Employee.

4. The Company reserves the right to initiate action to safeguard Company's interest including but not limited to termination, dismissal, or release of the Employee if, according to the Company's assessment, the Employee is deemed ineffective or inadequate in performing their responsibilities, or is found to be involved in dishonesty, fraud, misconduct, or a breach of the Company's policies. Such action may also be taken for circumstances that, in the management's judgment, warrant such measures. The Company's determination in this regard will be conclusive and binding.

Parties have agreed to the terms and conditions hereinabove mentioned, which would be enforced in the event of the breach of the terms and conditions of the Agreement.

I HAVE READ THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS AS STATED IN THIS AGREEMENT AND BY WAY OF MY SIGNATURE BELOW GRANT MY CONSENT TO ABIDE BY THE SAME AND FULFILL MY OBLIGATIONS WITH UTMOST SINCERITY.
